“ Hello to the family of Clara B. Forest. To experience the lost of a loved one can be a truly devastating time period of confusion, anger and sadness. Death is a state of which the person is "conscious of nothing at all" (Ecclesiastes 9:5)--meaning their spirits do not transform to spiritual creatures to haunt the living. A question to be asked is what about heaven and hell? Heaven is reserved for 144,000 anointed ones who will rule with Jesus Christ in Heaven, "And I heard the number of those who were sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel" (Revelation 7:4). Hell however is a place that does not truly exist. " He that does not love has not come to know God, because God is love" (1 John 4:8) the teachings of a fiery destruction dishonors Jehovah our God because it goes against his loving nature and teachings...he does not wish to see any of his creations destroyed like father would not like to see his son die before his eyes. That is why those who are not apart of the 144,000 heavenly selected group have a earthly hope. The will be a resurrection of the death by Jesus Christ death that gave all sinful humans a hope to live in a paradise earth. (1 Corinthians 1:20). "That there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous" (Acts 24:15). Death will be no more (Revelation 21 :4), lame ones will walk again (Isaiah 35:6), blind ones will see (Isaiah 35:6), the sick will be healed (Isaiah 33:24) and no one will ever starve again (Psalm 72:16). In the meantime however please pray to Jehovah, "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3) for comfort through this tough time.
