

Clara L. Brown

October 30, 1925 - August 20, 2005

CLARA L. BROWN, daughter of the late Frank and Sallie Lue Maddox, was born on October 30, 1925 in Lunenburg, Virginia. She also received her education there. On August 19, 1950, she married the late Robert Brown, her beloved and devoted husband. Clara has been a very outstanding mother, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt, etc. and a very dear friend to her family and friends. She was a very friendly person willing to listen to any and all problems. She may not have been able to solve the problem, but she would listen to comfort you and help ease your mind. For over 30 years, Clara has been a devoted member of the Jehovah's Witnesses and was proud and had no shame of being a member. Clara had a magnificent expression of Jehovah's undeserved kindness through his son, Christ Jesus. She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Ms. Clara E. White, Mrs. Carrie Corum, Ms. Victoria Brown; three sons, Mr. Frankie Brown, Mr. Robert Brown Jr. and Mr. Roderick Brown; seven sisters, Lucille Brown (Deceased), Ella Mae Bullin (Deceased), Sadie Lee Jackson, Martha Ann Yates, Ruby Blackwell, Easter Epps, Sallie Kinloch; and three brothers, Joseph Maddox (Deceased), John Henry Maddox (Deceased), William Alphus Maddox (Deceased); twelve grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren, two grandsons-in-law, one granddaughter-in-law, and a great host of other relatives and friends.

“ What a beautiful picture! And just think, one day her 'flesh will become fresher than in her youth and she will return to the days of her youthful vigor.'(Job 33:25) The Bible makes is clear that death was NOT a part of God's original plan for the human family. But it also promises that death, sickness, and old age will be permanently done away with. We anxiously look forward to that time.##imported-begin##Lockley##imported-end##
