“ To the Burrows Family, our hearts goes out to you on the lost of your Mother and Grandmother. Knowing that she died in Christ,gives us a glow that only God can reveal. Whenon'es goes through life's challenges, we realizes that it is not designed to break us, but to bend us toward God. On behalf of the Greater St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church of Georgetown, South Carolina, I, the Rev. Robert L. Morris along with the Steward, Trustee and teh entire Greater St. Paul Church Family, we are with you in prayer. Rev. Robert L. Morris, Pastor###imported-begin###Greater St. Paul A.M.E. “ As you go through this difficult time, we are praying for God to help, strengthen and keep you; as only He can. May the love that was shared with Clara continue to fill your hearts and minds, as you share that love with each other. Abide in the blessed assurance that God will continue to comfort you during this time of sorrow. For weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. Strive to be ready for that Great and Glorious Morning.###imported-begin###Danny & Joycie Garrett and Family###imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. The sorrow we feel when we loose someone we love can seem to go on forever. It may seem like there is no source of relief. Be assured that there is one that will provide us with relief, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). We only have to ask. He promises us that there will soon be an end to death, (Rev 21:3,4) and a resurrection for those who have fallen asleep in death (John 5:28,29). These promises were made by the "God who cannot lie." Titus 1:2. I would love to discuss these and other wonderful provisions with you. Please contact me if you are interested.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ The loss of a dear loved one is very painful and difficult to bear; that is why the Bible calls death our enemy at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Please be encouraged to know that God will do away with that enemy and He holds out the hope of a resurrection for our departed loved ones. Daniel 12:2 states: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up". I hope these Scriptual truths will comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest sympathy to the family. Death is always a sad time and life seems hopeless when death takes a love one away however because Jehovah God cannot lie according to Titus 1:2 he promise in the near future death will be no more according Rev 21:1-3. That is a very comforting thought to know that death will no longer threaten our lives and not have a hold on those who have already fell victim to death. I say that because Jehovah God has given His son Jesus the power to wake those from death, a resurrection. John 5:28-29 How thankful we can be to no our loved ones are just sleep temporarily.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I extend my deepest condolences to you for the loss of your loved one. One day all sorrow and pain will be a thing of the past, because God has promised an end to sickness and death in the near future. Isaiah 33:24 lets us know that one day, "No resident will say; "I am sick." Then Isaiah 25:8 promises that the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will swallow up death forever." After which "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29. May the blessing of the ressurection sustain you, and help you to go on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
