“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear Brian and Wendy and family of sister Clara, I am so very sorry for your loss, and so sorry I'm just finding out about it. I guess it's because we're no longer in the same congregation. It was so nice to see you on our trip to Lancaster, but I am truly sorry about your mother Brian. Please be comforted by Jehovah's promises of the wonderful resurrection, and remember that there is a beautiful rainbow just over the horizon as long as we endure. You all are in my prayers, and I hope I get a chance to see you all again soon. Love Always, Rita##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
