

Clara Thorne

October 24, 1925 - March 11, 2010

CLARA THORNE, daughter of the late Mack Robinson and the late Lucy Warren Robinson, was born on October 23, 1925 in Smithfield, North Carolina. She departed this life on March 11, 2010 after a lengthy illness. She received her early education at Johnston County Vocational School in Smithfield, NC. Clara was a fast learner and as a young lady, became interested in the education of black hair care. After mastering that interest and graduating from School of Cosmetology in Norfolk, VA she left for Baltimore, Maryland. After being a hair stylist for many years. Clara met and married long time friend, Waverly Thorne (also known as Jake) now deceased. There were no children from this union. She found her one true calling after graduating from the School of the Bible in Baltimore, MD and earned her title, Minister Clara Thorne. Clara and Waverly shared a strong bond which led them to worship at True Salvation Holiness Temple under the leadership of Pastor Orna Mae Bryant. After faithful years of service and a long illness, Clara resided at the Rock Glen Rehabilitation and Nursing Home when God called her home. She leaves to mourn: one sister, Alma Alford; two brothers (now deceased) Wade Robinson of Johnston County, NC and Marion Robinson of Baltimore, MD; nieces, Carol Haynes, Jennifer Alford-Eichelberger and Chanda Turner; nephews, Raymond Alford, Howard Dennis Alford and Antonio Mario Alford; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity of live again on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
