

Clara Watson McLean

September 16, 1918 - February 12, 2004

On Thursday February 12, 2004, an Angel from God's Kingdom came down and took our beloved Clara home. She departed this life at Future Care at Irvington. Her entrance into the heavenly kingdom with the same grace and dignity that she exhibited in her everyday life on earth. Clara was born a native of Cottonville, North Carolina on September 16, 1918, to the late Maggie Thompson and Richard Watson. She was the second oldest of sixteen children. Clara was educated in public school in Fairmont, North Carolina. Clara met Duncan McLean at a young age; the two knew the true meaning of love. Duncan faithfully sent Clara fifty cents a week so she could save enough money to move to Baltimore, so the two could reunite and get married. Afterward the Lord guided the two to become members of Southern Baptist Church in East Baltimore. It was after the death of her late husband that she later found her new church home at First Abyssinia Baptist Church in Baltimore, Clara attained employment. To her employer Clara was known to be a faithful, on time, strong and hardworking employee. She retired after working 30 years or more of domestic cleaning. Through all her pain and suffering, she smiled, remained positive and continued to try to lift her family's spirits. Her husband Duncan McLean predeceased her in death. She leaves to cherish her loving memory: two daughters, Carneal Watson McNeil of Baltimore, MD. and Lenora Cox of Mt. Veron, NY; six grandchildren Harry McNeil of Aberdeen, Md., Elaine McNeil Berry of Baltimore, MD., Christopher, Pamela, Jonathan and Andrew Cox of Mt. Veron, NY; five great grandchildren, Jacklyn and Wallace Berry of Baltimore, MD., Shemiaka McNeil and Rodderick Rowdy of Mt. Veron, NY., Harry McNeil IV of Washington Street., three great-great daughters, and a multitude of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncle, cousins and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
