“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly reveals: "There is going to be a resurrection". Also, Isaiah 25:8 lovingly informs us: "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ The Bible makes this comforting promise: "Jehovah is near to all those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves" (Psalm34:18). Psalm 55:22 encourages us to "throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you". The Bible also teaches that those who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Jesus himself said at John 5:28-29 that all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection. May you find solace in the God of all comfort during this difficult time (2Cor1 3-4). “ Dear family, I send my warmest sympathy. Death is never easy to deal with, but comforting words from our friends and family can help us get through the mourning period, 1 Thessalonians 5:4 tells us; ‘speak consolingly to the depressed souls, support the weak, be long-suffering toward all.’ Another great help is continuing to read and study the bible to understand the wonderful hope Almighty God Jehovah has in store for us at Acts 24:15, where there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the righteous.##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##
