

Clarence Burdette Highsmith

October 9, 1955 - May 11, 2002

Clarence “Burdette” Highsmith, the son of the late Ernestine Highsmith and Joe Cherry, was born in Bethel, North Carolina. He departed this life suddenly on May 11, 2002 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Clarence received his education at the Mergenthaler (Mervo) High School in Baltimore, Maryland. He was self-employed in Home Improvement job specifications. He was indeed a “Handy Man”! Clarence made numerous friends wherever he went. He was always laughing and smiling. He was a true friend and a devoted family man. He will surely be missed by everyone. He leaves to mourn his loss: son, Burdette Keon Highsmith; daughter, Kiera Tiffany Highsmith; granddaughter, Endia DeShay Highsmith; two grandsons, Burdette Keon Highsmith, Jr. and Rodney Antonio Murray; grandmother, Rachel Highsmith; and a very special friend, Elizabeth “Betty” Greene; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives and friends.
