

Clarence J. Cole Jr.

December 15, 1929 - March 11, 2012

CLARENCE JAMES COLE, JR., son of the late Clarence Sr. and Macie Cole, was born on December 15, 1929 in Smyrna, South Carolina. He departed this life on March 11, 2012.

He attended the South Carolina School System, then became employed at an early age. After relocating to Baltimore, Maryland, he was employed at Sparrows Point and later at the Nelson Company where he retired after thirty-six years.

Clarence also served in the United States Army where he was given an Honorable Discharge. He gave his life to Christ at an early age, where he became a life-long member of Southern Baptist Church. He was a devoted member of the Senior Ushers and dedicated leader of the Youth Ushers. Clarence was a 33^o Mason and served as Chaplain of the Universal Social Club.

Cole, also known as "Fathead" or "Pops" made numerous friends wherever he went. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and family man.

He leaves to mourn: his significant other and devoted friend, Marion Davis; three daughters, Yvonne, Patricia and Sherry; three sons, Preston Sr., Curtis and Dominique; one daughter-in-law, Janet; one godson, Preston Jr.; one aunt, Esslena Caine; close cousin, Anna Lee Jones; and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, cousins and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

Jackie Dean Couser (1938-2011) always spoke fondly of his older cousin, Clarence (a.k.a "Big Clarence"). He said that Big Clarence was the big "kidder" in his family. I will cherish my memory of him as I do Jack's. Love, Darlene Colbert
