

Clarence Williams Dixon

August 2, 1939 - October 11, 2023

CLARENCE WILLIAMS DIXON was born on June 2, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Eugene and Florence Dixon. He departed this life on October 11, 2023 after a lengthy illness.

Clarence was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age at Ebenezer A.M.E. Church.

Clarence, known as “Frosty” by many in his younger days, loved to play drums for the Solo Gibbs Parade of the South Baltimore Marching Band. He also had a love for his cars that he would always ride through the South Baltimore area to Ebenezer A.M.E. Church.

Clarence works as a truck driver for Muhly’s Bakery from which he retired after a great number of years. He had a special love for all the Tender Loving Daycare children, and he will truly be missed by them.

He would sit and watch his favorite tv show, “Old Westerns” during the daytime. Clarence had a lot of friends from far and near who loved him, especially the South Baltimore friends he grew up with.

Clarence leaves to cherish his memory: his sister, Victoria (Samuel) Harriday; his two daughters, Gilda (Mark preceded in death) Jones and Yvette (Raymond) Maddox; three grandsons, Tyrone Fletcher, Dominique Goldstein and Isaiah Goldstein (Darcel Holman preceded him in death); three great-grandchildren, Londyn Holman, Cash and Pascha Fletcher; all of John and Beatrice Avery's grandchildren and great-grandchildren; a host of other relatives and friends
