“ I send my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Clarence at this most difficult time. One day there will be no more sickness and death, and God will wipe out every tear from our eyes. Rev 21,4 He is promising to create a new world; a world of peace free from all pain and sorrow. Isaiah 65:17 says, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." Life will be peaceful and happy at that time, and our dead ones will rise so that they too can share in those blessings. Daniel 12:2 makes a wonderful promise, because it says, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Imagine seeing your loved one alive again. Put faith in Jehovah's promises, because he never fails to fulfill his word. Joshua 23:14. I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address for a free home bible study. Through a bible discussion, you can learn about the wonderful blessings God has in store for those who love him. May you receive much comfort and strength to help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To The Baylor Family, I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinitely into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). The Bible promises that in the near future, all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29). Continue to rely on the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
