“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is truly a painful event in our lives that we can hrdly come to grips with. We all long for an end to sickness and death. One day this desire in our hearts will be realized. An end to all saddness, sorrow, and death is definitely on the horizon, according to God's word. Jehovah God always fullfills his word, so we can trust him when his word says that we can see our dead loved ones again in the ressurection. Acts 24:15. Jesus brought many back to life while he was here on earth. These thrilling events point to the day when he will ressurect millions to a paradise earth that God has promised to bring about. Jesus said, "I am the ressurection and the life." "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies will come to life." One day all sorrow will be past. So dear ones please put your faith in his word, and continue to rely on him for the comfort and strength you need to get you through.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. The Holy Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for us during this time of our grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection (see John 5:28,29). It is my hope that these words bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##
