

Clarence Edward Fields

February 9, 1946 - November 5, 2013

Our family patriarch Clarence Edward Fields Jr. a faithful servant was peacefully called home on Tuesday, November 5, 2013. He was born February 9, 1946 in Henrico County, Virginia. Clarence was the son of the late Clarence and Gladys Fields. He was the 5th child of twelve siblings. Preceding him in death was his son Darryl, four siblings, Judith, Elbert, Mary, and Geraldine.

He received Christ at an early age, and was baptized at Antioch Baptist Church in Varina. He attended Henrico County public schools and graduated from Virginia Randolph High School. After graduation he served in the U.S. Army for four years during the Vietnam War. Clarence worked at Sears and retired after 33 years of service.

He enjoyed watching the Redskins and tennis. He had a passion for gardening, where he spent a lot of his time during the spring and summer. He was known to be a gadget guru, family photographer and computer expert. In the fall, Clarence was active showing his skills as a master hunter. He was affectionately known as Do-man and Crow by family and close friends. One of his favorite saying was "You got to be tough in this world!" He was jack of all trades and a master of many.

“ *To My Sister, Niece and the Entire Fields Family
The Minor and William Family wish to send our greatest sympathy to each of you.in the homegoing of your love one. Clarence was a wonderful, funny and out spoken person. He would say what he wanted and meant what he said, with a smile and a joke. I will never forget the things he would do and say. So I say to the family
Clarence now resides in the arms of our Lord and Savior.*

“ *To The Fields Family
Clarence and I were classmates from elementary through high school. We have remained friends for the past fifty years.
He was a wonderful friend. I will always remember Clarence. Rest In Peace My Friend.*

“ To the family of Mr. Clarence Fields. I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that reads “The Hearer of prayers, a source of comfort in times of grief and distress.
