

Clarence E. Gibbs, Jr.

November 2, 1943 - February 10, 2018

Clarence Earl Gibbs, Jr., the oldest child of the late Clarence and Odell Gibbs, was born on November 2, 1943. He attended Baltimore City schools and graduated from Dunbar High School in 1961. While at Dunbar, he survived the demanding audition process and became a member of the Dunbar High School choir. He also attended Morgan State and completed an Associate Degree program at Baltimore City Community College.

Clarence, who was always known as Bucky among family and friends, had various jobs in his younger years. He found his niche when he was hired at McCormick Spice Company. He worked diligently and made many friends while at McCormick where he worked until he retired.

In 1986, he married Mary Marks Lee, the love of his life. They shared wonderful years together until she preceded him in death in 1995.

Bucky was a quiet man who loved his family. He was always present at family gatherings. While Bucky may have seemed quiet, he was always ready to share his knowledge and opinions on a variety of subjects. He was also a devoted son who helped care for his mother before her passing. In his spare time and retirement years, Bucky was an avid sports fan.

His passing has left an empty space in our family circle. He leaves to mourn his sisters, Laura, Joyce, Barbara (Roeyah), and Sheila; and his brother, Charles. He will be greatly missed by his nieces and nephews, Nikkia, Alexis, Kamaria, Herbert, David, Bryan, Jelani and Aaron. His extended family includes Mary Lee, Regina Davis, Ronald Lee, Jr., his beloved granddaughter, Regina Lee and her sons, Stephon and Eshi. Bucky is also survived by many other relatives and friends.
