

Clarence Hardy

May 17, 1956 - October 13, 2003

Clarence Hardy, son of the late Bernard Hardy and Bernice Hardy was born on May 17, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed his life on October 13, 2003. Clarence, who was best known as "J.P.," received his education in the public schools in Baltimore City. Clarence worked at various jobs during his lifetime. His last job was in construction at Monumental Paving in 1989. As a young man he met and later married Linda Blue on November 19, 1988 and out of this union, two children were born Nicole and Tavon. J.P. was a easygoing man who brought laughter to everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Linda Blue; two children, Nicole Hardy and Tavon Hardy; a granddaughter, Carchia Banks; cousins, aunts, other relatives and dear friends

“ My condolences to the family. Our family takes much solace comfort in the Bible. John 5:28,29 says- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." We hope this comforts you also.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
