

Clarence Henry Cameron

August 5, 1954 - September 14, 2004

Clarence H. Cameron (Hank), son of Alice Cameron and the late Henry W. Cameron, was born on August 5, 1954, and died September 14, 2004. He received his education at Southern High School and graduated in 1972. He was employed at William T. Burnett Co. until moving on to Yellow Transportation. Hank, also known as Bubbles, was a fun loving, lovable kind of a guy. He loved playing Spades and pinochle (double deck). His friends and family, each summer holiday looked forward to his cookouts in the backyard that would often last two days. He was an avid Ravens fan. During Raven home games, you could often find him on the corner of Eutaw and Pratt tailgating before games with his long-time friends, Eddie and Wayne. Life to Hank was a great big party and he lived it to the fullest. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Alice Cameron; his daughter, India; his sister, Elizabeth Webb; one brother-in-law; four nieces, Kenyarna, Esterallita, Moranda, and Ashley Smith; three nephews, Rashad, DeShane and Michael; two long-time and devoted friends, Wayne Ridgeway and Eddie Sanders; and his long-time, loving, and devoted companion, Phyllis Fountain. Many thanks to his special friend and caregiver, Stephanie Campbell. He will surely be missed by all that knew him.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture as I have been many times.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Malachi 3:16 tells us that Almighty God has a "book of remembrance". What will he do for those in His memory? Acts 24:15 promises- "there is going to be a resurrection". Yes dead ones will come back to life! Psalm 37:29 and Luke 23:43 promise a peaceful Paradise for this earth. May you find much solace and strength from these divinely inspired promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Though during your time of grief it may not seem possible but there is always light at the end of every tunnel especially when someone dear has been separated from us due to death. Death in this present day is not something we want as a part of life’s cycle. Our heavenly father Jehovah God wants you to know that. He wants all people to know he is aware of all our suffering and losses due to our enemy Satan and he will soon rectify because this is not the way he purpose life to be. 1John 4:8 lets us know God is Love so out of his love for us he made a provision that only the true and Almighty God can do. Jehovah have promise according to Rev 21:3,4 that death one day will be no more... the things that causes pain and mourning will be no more. As for those we have lost to death, John 5: 28, 29 states those in the memorial tombs will hear God’s sons voice, Jesus Christ and will awaken from an eternal sleep that have been made a temporary state now due to the ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. How wonderful the day when you will be able to enjoy your once lost loved one to death. Yes Jehovah promises us the gift of everlasting life according to Titus 1:2. The righteous ones will reside on earth forever as he informs us at Psalms 37:29 because that have always been his purpose since the beginning of mans creation again stated at Titus 1:2. You can have trust in this promised hope because Isaiah 55: 11 states of Jehovah his words will not return to him without results. Yes trust in God’s word the bible because Hebrews 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
