

Clarence A. Hunt

May 1, 1942 - September 3, 2019

Clarence A. Hunt was born on May 1, 1942 in Bowman, Georgia, the son of the late Lee Ora Hunt and Bessie Hunt. On Tuesday, September 3, 2019, at University of Maryland Medical Center - Midtown, Clarence Hunt finished his life here on this earth after a long illness to begin his eternal life with God.

Clarence was baptized at an early age attending New Mt. Hebron Baptist Church as an usher. Later in life he joined Union Baptist Church as an usher there. His favorite song was "Farther Along We'll Know All About It".

He received his education at Carver Vocational Technical High School and later became employed at Ribah Restaurant where he made Top Chef. He was a good-hearted, free-spirited person who was always ready to help in any way he could.

Clarence A. Hunt leaves to mourn: his daughter, Joy JacksonJones; grandchildren, Steven Brandon Jr., Kevin Brandon Sr., Ta'Kwan Bradley, Tra'Quan Bradley, Edward Smith Jr. (passed in 2008); great-grandchildren, Steven Brandon III, Kevin Brandon Jr., Roman Brandon, Peyton Brandon; his brother, William Turner (Janice); sisters, Bessie L. Hunt, Althinia Hunt, D. Min. of Richmond, VA and Genevia Hunt-Davis (Henry); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
