

Clarence J. Riddic

March 21, 1920 - February 6, 2003

On Thursday, February 6, 2003, Clarence Riddic, Sr. was called home to be with the Lord. Clarence was born on March 21, 1920 to the late Daniel and Lillie Riddic in Norfolk, Virginia. He was educated in the public school system of Norfolk, Virginia. Clarence moved to Baltimore, Maryland where he later enlisted in the Army and served four years. He then met and married the love of his life, Emily Elizabeth White. This union was blessed with six children, Cornelius, Gwendolyn, Stanley, Rosalee, Jerry and Clarence Jr. He worked at the Baltimore Gas and Electric Company and retired after thirty years of service. Clarence was a kind and generous man who had a smile that could light up a room. Everyone who knew him loved him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Emily; six children, Cornelius, Gwendolyn, Stanley, Rosalee, Jerry and Clarence Jr.; two daughters-in-law, Joyce and Peggy; son-in-law, Tony; eleven grandchildren, Antwan Sr., Tanika, Traivon, Clarence, Carlin, Anton, Joseph, Angel, Stanley, Daniel and Octavia; granddaughter-in-law, Antoinette; five great-grandchildren, Antwan Jr., Alexzaria, Shanika, Aniya and De'Asia; goddaughter, Keisha; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Clarence J. Riddic

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Clarence J. Riddic

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hi, Clarence this is Angie I just wanted to let you know that I'm sorry for the lost of your father. Can you please give your mother my love and let her know that I'm sorry for the lost of her husband. I wish each and everyone the best. Clarence I know you love your father very much but God loves him best. Keep your head towards heaven and stay in good spirit. Love always Angie.##imported-begin##Angela Falcon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dearest Ms. Emily and Family. I will always treasure the memories of Mr. Clarence and his station wagon rides. He was a GREAT father and a loving husband. I wasn't able to make the services for him , but my prayers are with you and you family at this time. My deepest and loving sympathy. Bridgette (Bridgie)##imported-begin##Bridgette D. Madison-Damon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM