

Clarence L. Simmons

November 6, 1933 - December 14, 2001

Clarence Lee Simmons, Sr., son of the late David and Mary Simmons, was born on November 6, 1933 in Taboro, Morth Carolina. He departed this life suddenly on December 14, 2001. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He married the late Yvonne Cooper, and out of that union they had five children. He served in the U.S. Army and later secured employment at Tony Vitrano Company, from which he retired after twenty-four years of service. He joined the New Psalmist Baptist Church, where he attended regularly. He leaves to mourn: four daughters, Patricia Charles, Angela Simmons, Tanga Simmons and Linda Simmons; one son, Clarence Simmons, Jr.; son-in-law, Alonzo Charles; four stepchildren, Delores Bagley, Shirley Bailey, Christine Wallace and Charles Torain; six grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; one brother, David Simmons, Jr.; two brothers-in-law, Leon Pettaway, Sr., and Delano Burke; two sisters-in-law, Grace Mitchell and Jackie Pettaway; two aunts, Leola Williams and Esther Williams; one uncle, Arthur Williams; a host of cousins, nephews, nieces and other relatives.

Tribute Wall

“ Clarence L. Simmons

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept our heartfelt sympathy in your time of great sorrow. Only those who have lost a loved one can know the depths of your feelings. We hope our caring will make your sorrow easier to bear. Sincerely, The March Family and Staff##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM