

Clarence E. Mack

January 4, 1937 - December 30, 2019

Clarence E. Mack was born on January 4, 1937 in Baltimore, MD to Martha and Freddy. He departed this life on December 30, 2019 at Northwest Hospital in Randallstown, MD. He was preceded in death by his parents, a wife (Mabel) and a brother (Oscar).

Clarence was educated in the Baltimore County Public School System. When he finished school, he went to work at Henryton Hospital in Howard County, MD. There he met Mabel Williams who he married in 1957. From that union a son, Larry Edward Mack, was born. Mabel Elizabeth Mack was called home on July 23, 2008.

There was never a time when Clarence (often called Mack) was not working. In addition to his work at Henryton Hospital Center, Clarence purchased and ran a social club, "C'est Bon." He worked hard to make this lounge a wholesome and joyous environment for a community in Baltimore City. C'est Bon was Mack's pride and joy. He spent many years enjoying many friends, family and customers. Some might describe Clarence as a steward of the neighborhood.

In later years, Clarence devoted his life to serving others through a taxi and limousine service with his brother Oscar. He could be seen in some of the downtown areas transporting passengers to various city sites and the Thurgood Marshall Airport (BWI).

Clarence met and married Emma Berry and would be with her until his last breath.

Clarence was preceded in death by sisters Marilyn and Ester, brothers Robert and Oscar. He leaves behind sisters Sarah Carter, Nellie Morris and Roberta Mack. He leaves to cherish his memory Larry Mack (son); Michelle McBride (daughter); and Tierra Mack (granddaughter); stepdaughter and step-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Clarence will be truly missed by all whom he touched as he lived a full and wonderful life.

“ I would like to give my condolences to the Mack family on their loss of their beloved Husband, Brother and Friend. I moved Mr. Mack into his apartment at The Greens at Rolling Road and we became good friends. I was truly sadden to hear of his illness and his passing. Even though I was no longer working at the site, I stayed in contact with Mr. & Mrs. Mack. I will miss talking with him.

*Rest in Eternal Peace,
Brenda Short*
