

Clarence McNeill Jr.

November 28, 1951 - May 10, 2012

Clarence McNeill, Jr., son of the late Clarence Sr. and Mattie McNeill, was born on November 28, 1951 in Red Springs, North Carolina. He departed this life suddenly on May 10, 2012.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He also attended the School of Culinary Arts. He became the Head Chef at Kibby's and he also worked for Equitable Trust Bank. Later he joined his father in the construction business, E.B. Justice where he was the Head Foreman. Many years later he became Supervisor for Custodial Services at Johns Hopkins University.

Clarence had numerous friends wherever he went, and if you knew him you liked him. He was a straight-talking, no-nonsense man. He loved his family and shared those feelings with them throughout his days. He is deeply loved and will be truly missed.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Sheila McNeill; five sons, Wallace, Alphonso, Dana, Tony and Shawn; four daughters, Michelle, Linda, Ivy and Trice; eighteen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; three sisters, Barbara, Mary and Val; three brothers, Ben, Donald and Greg; (three brothers preceded him in death, Donald, Martin and Marshall McNeill); and a host of in-laws, nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
