

Clarence P. Graves

December 28, 1949 - March 14, 2005

Clarence Pervin Graves, was born on December 28, 1949 to the very loving parents, John and Bertha Graves. He departed this life on Monday, March 14, 2005 early in the morning after a brief illness. Jiggs, as he was called by his family members and close friends, was a quiet spirited person that was willing to help others. He enjoyed watching television, especially sports programs. Jiggs grew up in East Baltimore, his favorite area of the city. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Jiggs was a wonderful, loyal and devoted son, brother, uncle and friend. He certainly will be missed. Jiggs is survived by his loving mother, Bertha; brother, John Graves and wife, Margo Graves; sister, Virginia Ann Graves; three nieces, Nia Squire (Angela Graves), Latangy Harris and Natosha (Mink) Fitzgerald; two nephews, Djuan Fitzgerald and wife, Joy Fitzgerald and Djuvan Graves; a sister in spirit, Latija Bilali (Joyce Graves); four aunts, Ofreda Ray, Luevenia Spencer, Lowresser Walker and Frances Baker; uncle, Oscar Lee; seven great-nieces, three great-nephews; and a host of cousins and friends, including Larry, Monk, Charles and Vicky.

“ I send my condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. Jesus said at John 11:25 that he is "...the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life". May this strengthen you in your time of need.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##
