

Clarence Dennis Rogers Jr.

August 22, 1948 - August 5, 2019

Clarence would like to let you know that his work is complete. He received a call, an offer he could not refuse, for an appointment from which he will not be returning. This assignment comes with a huge signing bonus, a reunion with his mom and dad. A chance to see his other family and friends, he hasn't seen in a long time.

On August 5, 2019, he accepted this assignment leaving us with his life story. It is as follows: On August 22, 1948, Clarence Dennis Rogers Jr., was born to the late Clarence and Mable Rogers in Baltimore, MD. He graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. Upon completion of high school, he served in the United States Army. Fighting for his country in the Vietnam War, he received a Purple Heart and other medals. After receiving an honorable discharge, he attended college graduating with a Bachelor Science degree from Coppin State College, which was one of his greatest achievements.

Every life has a beautiful story and Clarence's was the birth of his only child Trawn M. Rogers Sr. He loved him with all his heart and was very proud of all his accomplishments. "Rod" was overjoyed when Trawn made him a grandfather to 7 grandchildren. Especially the one granddaughter, Courtney (who was the apple of his eye). "Rod" as he was affectionately known was employed by C&P telephone company in his early life. He also worked as chef, but his passion was being a counselor at the Recovery House for men.

Rod loved his family and the get togethers. He had his own style sporting his hats and caps. Some of his favorite things to do were, watching Game of Thrones, sports, scary movies, and teasingly scaring the kids afterwards. He loved all breeds of dogs. He was like a dog whisperer. His last dog was a shih tzu. Rod was also bilingual in his own right. He was moderately fluent in Spanish, Vietnamese and even some Korean. Additionally, spending special time with his baby brother Doc, was always a highlight of his days. He also enjoyed spending time with his devoted friend Beverly Tinsley.

As Clarence entered into eternal rest, he leaves to cherish his memory; son, Trawn M. Rogers Sr, granddaughter, Courtney, 6 grandsons, Marquis, Trawn Jr, Dakari, Dajuan, Travon and Chauncey, 6 great grandchildren, sisters; Shirley, Bertha (Robert), Gladys, Tanya (Quinton), brothers; Joseph, Kenneth (Marcella), Tyrone, Dennis (Sheila), Aunt Linda Scriven. Devoted friend Beverly Tinsley and host of nieces, nephews and other family and friends.

“ Rod, as I sit here at work today you are all I can think about, my heart still hurts so bad. I still find it hard to believe you left me the way you did. I know that you have reunited with MOM, DAD, Niicy and Moochie. Miss yall beyond my mind. Sadly, Big Red.
