

Clarence T. Cooper

August 29, 1971 - March 31, 2002

When the Lord came, He came for the best man. On Sunday, March 31, 2002, Clarence T. Cooper, Jr. departed this earth suddenly. Mobey, as family and friends called him, was born on August 29, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Clarence T. Cooper, Sr. and Rebecca Huff Cooper. Mobey attended Southern High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Clarence always was a man who never let his boss down on the job. He was the best crew leader at McDonalds for six years, and his last job was with Burger King for six years. Mobey was always the type of person who when you were down and upset about something, you weren't down or upset, because he brought your frown to a smile with his funny self. Many people all around him loved Mobey. Wherever he went there was love in the air. His love just flow through the air and everyone reaches up to catch it. Mobey loved to dance, he was the best dancer. When he got out there on the dance floor, the crowd surrounded him. Clarence leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Rebecca Huff Cooper; four sisters, Trunetta, Delores, Clarice and Lottie; one cousin known as his sister, Lena; one brother, Anthony; five aunts, Maebell Huff, Josephine Huff Williamson, Anna Ruth Wilson, Barbara White and Cindy Rooks; four uncles, the late e departed uncle Lonnie C. Huff, Harry B. huff, Willie Huff and Clarence Huff; six nieces, three nephews, two great-nephews, three great-nieces, a host of other relatives and friends. Mobey also leaves to mourn three dedicated and devoted friends, LaKisha Haley, Tyrone Gillis and Gregory Franklin. Before I lay me down to sleep, I give my soul to Christ to keep;Four corners to my bed,Four angels overspread;One at the head, one at the feet,And two to guard him while he sleeps.Love, Cousin Lucy
