

Clarence Wayne Taylor Jr.

June 8, 1950 - September 6, 2019

CLARENCE WAYNE TAYLOR JR. was born on June 8, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland to parents Clarence Leo Taylor (deceased) and Beatrice Hawkins Taylor (deceased). Clarence passed away on September 6, 2019.

Clarence graduated from Frederick Douglas High School and the University of Maryland, and he worked for the Federal Government. Clarence received a Doctor of Ministry degree in Christian Counseling.

Clarence grew up in Christian Memorial Church, where he was baptized. He was on the church choir and taught Sunday school. Later he became a deacon. Clarence loved the Lord and enjoyed working for God. At the time of his death, he was a member of New Life Inspirational Church.

Clarence married his former wife Cynthia in 1972 and they had one son, Jonathan.

Clarence and Jonathan loved spending time together, dining out, talking, traveling and watching movies.

In 1954, his mother married Rev. Dr. David Walton (deceased). Clarence had two stepbrothers, David Walton Jr. (deceased) and Nathaniel Walton; and two stepsisters, Cynthia Taylor and Valerie Taylor.

“ My sincere prayers and condolences go out to the son of Rev. Taylor, along with the rest of his family and close friends. He will be truly missed. It is still hard for me to believe that Rev Taylor is not with us anymore. I am so grateful for the many times that we were able to talk on the phone, and he helped me and was able to give me great advice during my times of going through personal life struggles.
