

Clarence Vincent Jackson

January 4, 1947 - July 20, 2008

Clarence Vincent Jackson, son of the late Louise Jane Jackson, was born on January 4, 1947 in Atlantic City, NJ. He departed this life suddenly on July 20, 2008. He received his education at Atlantic City High School in Atlantic City, NJ and graduated in 1965. He attended a culinary school and graduated first in his class. He was employed in various positions, most recently in Security Management. Clarence made numerous friends wherever he went because he never met a stranger. He was a loving, giving person. He would give the shirt off his back if you needed it. He won numerous trophies and patches from shooting pool. He had a passion for watching Drum & Bugle Corps competitions. He was also an avid collector of movies and was very proud of his collection. His sense of humor and winning smile will be missed by all who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his sister and brother-in-law, Sandra L. and Johnnie Fletcher; brother, Bernard R. Jackson and his companion, Mary Fisher; three nieces, Sharnell A. Fletcher, Stephanie M. McKay, and Teya N. Bruce; two nephews, Bernard R. Jackson, Jr. and Derryck D. Fletcher; a very close family friend, Mabel V. White; and a host of other relatives and friends. One nephew, Johnnie Fletcher, Jr. preceded him in death.

“ I send my condolences to the family at this most difficult time. Please keep in mind that the bible holds out the hope of a ressurection for the dead. At Acts 24:15 the apostle Paul says: "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. All in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out. John 5:28,29. May you keep the wonderful memories of Clarence close to your hearts until the wonderful day of salvation from Jehovah God is fulfilled.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
