

Clarence Williams

March 2, 1933 - September 27, 2018

CLARENCE WILLIAMS, affectionately known as “Mitch” and “Buddy Boy”, was the son of the late Alice and Roland Phillips. He was born on March 2, 1933 in Southampton, Virginia and departed this life on September 27, 2018 to be with the LORD.

Clarence was educated in the Baltimore City School system. He was employed with Montgomery Wards, Johns Hopkins Hospital and Super fresh. He retired from the law firm of Whiteford, Taylor and Preston.

We was a faithful member of the Ark Church and attended regularly. He also served on the usher board.

Clarence loved all sports and going to the race track to see the horses run. He also loved spending time with his grandchildren and great- grandchildren.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Deborah; his children, Kenneth, Theresa, Karen and Erick; son-in-law, Don; honorary daughter, Bonita; and his sister, Jean.

He also leaves: his grandchildren, Craig, Ericka, Nakeisha, Kalah, Jordan, Morgan, Kaleah, Rickie, Rashad, Rylee, Nia, Aniya, Samiya, Nasir, Travis, Trayon and Montrell; a host of other relatives and dear friends.
