

Clarence E. "Butch" Williams

June 27, 1947 - February 16, 2019

CLARENCE ELVEN WILLIAMS, the eldest son of the late Maude Williams and John A. Hall, was born June 27, 1947 in Baltimore Maryland. On February 16, 2019, after a long illness, Clarence won the victory and was called into eternal rest.

Affectionately known as "Butch" by family and friends. He received his education from the Baltimore City Public School System.

He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age and later was baptized as an adult. His loving mother taught him the importance of God and family. As God would have it. Butch married the beautiful, Sylvia Wingfield, in 1974.

Butch worked for the Baltimore City Sanitation Department for over 40 years, until he happily retired in 2010.

Butch was a loving and caring "big brother" to all of his siblings. He also like a big brother to many in the east Baltimore neighborhood. He always had a kind word of wisdom. Butch was indeed one of the original OG'S that so many looked up to. He had a slow, smooth slide walk and talk. He truly loved the ladies and they loved him.

Butch was an avid sports fan, whether watching from home with his brother, Anthony, or taking in live games with his son, Cornie and nephews. Butch also enjoyed dancing, his dance of choice was hand dancing.

When you saw Butch you saw a Dapper gentleman, style and finist, down to his prolific hat collection. He always had a positive outlook on life no matter the situation by quoting "Aye it is what it is".

Butch children were his joy, he was so proud of them all. He had a unique bond with each of his children, He refer to Brandi as "Baby Girl" and would say Sylvia was the mother hen in charge. Butch was a great Dad, he will surely be missed by all who new him.

Among those who shared his life and preceded him in death were; his father, John Hall; mother Maude Williams; wife Sylvia Williams; son Keith Dorsey; brothers Lionel Madison, Tyrone Holmes and Jerry Holmes; and brother-in-law Antar Askia.

He leaves to cherish his memory; sons Kavin Cox (Tyronda) Cornell Williams (Dynia) and Clarence Dorsey; daughters, Margret Gray (Dameon), Sylvia "Tang" Hawkins (Jeffrey) and Brandi Williams; thirteen grandchildren, eight great grandchildren; brothers, Frederick Sorrel and Anthony Sorrel; sisters , June Askia and Debra Sorrel; sister -in-law , Michelle Holmes and bonus sister, Leona Tucker; childhood friend, Thurman; special friends, Casey and Dennis; a devoted friend and caretaker, Nicole Rorie; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Rest brother Butch rest.
We just miss their voices, the love we have in our hearts, the stories of their presence. So no, time changes nothing.
We just miss them just as much today as we did the day they died. We just miss them. We just do ❤️
