“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that our "enemy death" will one day be "destroyed". Those in the "memorial tombs" will come back to life. (John 5:28,29) Many will come back to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 33:24, 2 Peter 3:13) May you receive much comfort and strength from these promises from the Bible. And may you draw close to the Maker of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.(Psalm 83:18, John 3:16)###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end###

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is truly a devastating thing for a family to deal with. One day all sickness and death will be ended, according to God's word.. Isaiah 33,34, and 25,8 lets us know that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and no resident will have to say, I am sick. The people dwelling in the land will be those pardoned for their error. May it comfort you to know that your loved one will be ressurected, according to Acts 24,15. Please let your precious memories of your loved one, which death cannot erase, be a source of comfort to you as well. Take care.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ Hello ! Richardson's ! I would like to my condolences to all. Ms. Clarice was 92 years young, great. The bible give great hope for person living long at Ps.90:10 , where it say that some person will live to be 70 years old and others because of speical mightiness 80 years . What would life be like If we all could live forever. Great indeed. The time is coming soon when dying will be a thing of the past. Ms. Clarice from her face in the picture look like she enjoyed life and shared her love with many. May all the memoriese and happy times shared with Ms. Clarice reinforce that what our heavenly father siad at Isa.25:8, Death will be swallow up forever bring joy to your lives. Sincrely, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
