

Clarice Pinson

September 26, 1934 - December 11, 2005

In the late evening of Sunday, December 11, 2005, the struggle was over, her troubles had ceased, the fight had been fought, and the waiting was no more. Our Lord claimed his own CLARICE PINSON at Saint Joseph's Medical Center. Clarice Maulsby Pinson was born on September 26, 1934 in Bladenboro, North Carolina. She was the ninth child of the late William and Lula Maulsby. Clarice attended Bladen County Public Schools, and graduated from Spaulding-Monroe High School. Clarice moved to Baltimore, Maryland and was employed at Union Memorial Hospital in the Dietary Department for eleven years. She was later employed by the Westinghouse Defense Corporation where she worked for twenty-seven years, retiring in 1991. At an early age, Clarice was baptized and joined the Bryant Swamp Baptist Church, Bladenboro, NC. While living in Baltimore, she joined the Calvary Baptist Church, where she was a faithful and devoted member. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Harold Pinson on July 16, 1966. Clarice's greatest gifts were words of encouragement and a positive outlook. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She was without comparison, ever guiding and always caring. She was known for her love of clothes, shopping, and jewelry. She leaves to cherish her memory, a devoted daughter, Phyllis Maulsby; Sanka Hester; whom she loved like a son; two grandchildren, Rodney and Kim Maulsby; a granddaughter-in-law, Tovie Maulsby; five great grandchildren, Kholby Maulsby, Jazmine, Diamond, Dennis and Cinnamon Dorsey; two sisters, Virginia Munroe and Geneva

McCoy; one brother, Morris Maulsby; four sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law; a special girlfriend Shonga Q. Faust; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My condolences to the family. Rejoice in our Heavenly Father's promises at Revelation 21:4, where "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have past away."##imported-begin##D. Spann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the famiy, my deepest condoences. May you cherish her memory. The Bibe has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
