

Clarice Sandra Davis

November 3, 1946 - August 19, 2004

Clarice Sandra Davis, daughter of Annie M. Davis and the late William Davis was born on November 3, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. The eldest of three children, Sandra and her brothers, William Jr. and Alvin, were raised in United Memorial Baptist Church. An avid sports fan she participated in tennis and in college won many awards and citations-especially running marathons. Sandra attended Baltimore City Public Schools graduating from Eastern High in 1964, Morgan State College in June 1968. After receiving her B. A. degree she continued her scholastic achievement at Howard University earning her Master of Social Work degree in May 1977. Her career as a social worker for the State of Maryland spanned twenty-two years. Simultaneously, she earned her Real Estate license and worked for Active Realty Co. In 1990, when Sandra was diagnosed as having progressive M. S., she continued her commitment to her Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. sisters and her Alumni Association of Howard University (Baltimore Chapter). She was secretary until she was unable to continue. Sandra converted to Catholicism and became a member of the New All Saints Roman Catholic Church. Clarice leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Annie M. Davis; brother, William Jr. and Alvin; aunts, Laverne Massenburg, Eloise Henry, and Marjorie Fonder all of Baltimore, Md., Salley Jean Kimbrough of Tuskegee, Al. and Gertrude Mosley of Mobile, Al.; nieces, Christia N. Davis and Kelli E. Davis; cousins, Irene Love, Edwina and Betty Jean, Patricia Salaom, Elbert Kimbrough Jr., Wyanda Kimbrough, Ronald and Rodney Henry, Cynthia Windel, Twaria Fonder; other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my regrets on the passin of Ms. Clarice. Please note what the scriptures say at 1 Cor. 15:26. There the Almighty God, through the apostle Paul, promises that he is going to eliminate death. He also promise that there is going to be a time when we will not be mourning the death of loved ones. (Rev. 21:3,4) Oh how we look forward to that time.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I was saddened to here about my former co-workers' passing. But God knows best. I still remember when she worked with the Baltimore City DSS as a supervisor. She was really a nice person, who had a pleasent smile. Even though, I haven't seen her for many years, she comes to my mind when I pass her townhouse near security. May God continue to bless the family during this time.##imported-begin##Cynthia Jackson##imported-end##
