

Clarice Turner

March 28, 1936 - February 8, 2020

Clarice Turner, daughter of the late John and Ethel Royal, was born on March 28, 1936 in Wadesboro, North Carolina and moved to Baltimore, Maryland at an early age with her family. She departed this life on February 8, 2020. The oldest of two children. Her sister Betty Grier preceded her in death in 2006.

Affectionately known as "Reese", she attended Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in Baltimore City. She later married John Henry Turner who preceded her in death in 1994. Out of this former union, seven children were born, Patricia Little, Carol Turner, Laetitia Denise Turner, Valerie Paulette Turner, twins Donna Marie Turner and John Henry Turner and the youngest Angela Yvonne Thames.

Clarice worked a range of occupations. She worked for Broadway Services of Baltimore for well over 10 years. She also worked for the Omni Hotel in Downtown Baltimore. She then worked her remaining years for MCI telephone company before retiring around 1998.

A devoted mother, sister and aunt, Clarice enjoyed spending precious moments with her family. Whether it was the traditional holiday gatherings or our backyard family barbecues, Aunt Reese was always having a good time, and man she loved a good card game!

"Granny" loved to listen to music. Luther Vandross b.k.a. "Loofa" was definitely in her top 3. She loved to laugh. All that knew her, knew she was spunky and such a firecracker. She didn't bite her lip for anyone. She would always keep it real with you. She loved her Midnight Velvet Jewelry and her classic White Diamonds by Elizabeth Taylor.

Clarice for surely loved her family and always wanted the best for everyone. If they were happy, she was happy. Clarice accepted the Lord as her Savior at an early age. She attended Southern Baptist of Baltimore City.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren. She also leaves to mourn a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
