

Clarisa Shields

December 27, 1908 - November 25, 2008

Mrs. Clarisa Shields Mrs. Clarisa Shields was born on December 27th, 1908 in Calhoun County, South Carolina. She was the daughter of Celia and Alonzo Cheeseboro and was the oldest of seven children. Roscoe Cheeseboro Sr., Annie Cheeseboro, and Desia Snell preceded their sister in death. In the 1930's she married Lester Shields Jr. in North Carolina, her devoted husband of over forty years. She and her husband moved to Baltimore for better working opportunities and living conditions. He preceded her in death in 1971. The devoted and energetic marriage was blessed with the birth of three children: Thomas, Lonnie and Cassie, who preceded her in death. She lovingly raised her three grandsons, Lester, Michael and Demetria (Mark) who preceded her in death. Mrs. Shields was a hard working and honest person who opened her heart and home to anyone that needed help. She worked and retired from Manpower Inc. in 1968 and devoted herself to raising her grandson. You could always find her hard at work, cooking in her kitchen the best soul food in her well seasoned pans. She also grew some of the most beautiful flowers on Wabash Avenue. Mrs. Shields has a heart of gold and willingly shared her one hundred years of experience with anyone who would listen. She will be sorely missed by her devoted family, friends and neighbors. She is survived by her grandsons, Lester and Michael Shields and Roy Sabb. She also leaves to mourn her brothers, Roscoe Cheeseboro, Alonzo Cheeseboro Jr. and a sis, Celia Mae Whetstone, niece Earline Sabb, granddaughters, Shaniece Knappe and Shaniece Shields and Iris (Betty)

Jackson. She is also survived by her daughter In-laws Iris Shields and Rosalyn Shields and a host of nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

“ Clarisa Shields

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hello ! Shiels ! May I send my condolences in your recent loss. Ms. Clarissa was 100 years, wonderful, fantastic, the bible say at Ps.90:10, :Some persome will live to be 70 years and others 80 years because of speical mightiness". We look to the future with all the many promises found in the bible Ps.145:16. The is coming when the age will grow young, blind will see, deaf will hear O my something to live for. May the comfort from our heavenly father help to make you all strong and endure on the journey of life. I hope you al enjoy reading these words of HOPE.##imported-begin##L.D.C##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences the loss of Mrs. Shields. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM