

Claude Jackson, Jr.

March 8, 1980 - February 20, 2014

Claude Jackson, Jr. was born on March 8, 1980 to Valeria and Claude Jackson, Sr. at the Medical College of Virginia (MCV) in Richmond, Virginia. Claude, Jr. was also known as "Flip" to his close friends and family. He attended Radcliff Elementary School, Moody Middle School and Henrico High School.

Claude, Jr. departed this life on February 20, 2014. He is preceded in death by his devoted grandmother, Marian Taylor Robinson and a devoted cousin, George Bullock. He leaves to cherish his memory, a son Claudevante Jackson; sisters, Claudia Jackson and Magan McLaurin; brothers, Lamont Wiggins, Mark Jackson, Larry McLaurin, Jean-Claude Jackson, and Tymaree Crumpler; a grandmother, Ms. Marie Harris; a devoted aunt, Karen Taylor; a devoted cousin, Darrell Taylor, and devoted friend Xavier Kidd, Sr., known as "Zay".

Claude, Jr., was a member of the Bible Way Church World Wide. He cherished the father-son time spent with Claudevante. Claude Jr., was a very neat and organized man and a hard-worker. He enjoyed reflecting on the past fruits of his labor. His desire to become an Electrician became a reality after he received his Master Electrical License. He was proud of his accomplishment of obtaining a foundational skill. His favorite color was "Blue". He was a very serious and humorous person. Most of the time his response to any questionable situation would first be "really" before getting to the root of his reply.

Claude, Jr. was very respectful to his elders and would always say "yes mam", "yes sir" and "thank you". He will be most remembered for being a deep thinker and always asking "what's up?", He referred to coffee as 'a cup of mud.' He would also say to his cousin, "I can count on you, me and money".

“ To My Dearest Claudia, Parents, Stacy and Family,

I am shocked to learn of Claude Jr.'s passing. My love and prayers go out to you all!

May GOD wrap you in His blanket of comfort and peace that surpasses ALL understanding like only the Lord GOD Almighty can do! HE has has done it for me and I know HE will do it for you!

Hold on to your beautiful memories... Every memory I have of Claude Jr. is a positive one. I smile as I can remember many times when we were young, and Claude Jr. would meet his mom at the door or in front of the house sometimes, lol, to try to tell on Claudia for different things... Lord have mercy, Claudia would bounce back with a response that would make his story seem incredible. Lord, I thank you for Claude Jr.'s life, all the laughs, and all the good he brought to everyone.

Help us GOD to love one of another even more and to be acceptable in your sight as we remember that you have told us in your Holy Word that our life is as a vapor/midst that last for only a little while, and will soon disappear (James 4:14).

*Love Always,
Jovan*

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Valerie,
It is with deep regret that we share these words of comfort and hope. We understand that this walk is for you and yours alone, but our prayer is that you realize you are never alone. That when you are in a place that is beyond human control or ability, like the loss of a loved one, it is then that God can cradle you in His arms and speak peace that transcends human understanding. May you and your family now find that peace.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.
