

Claudette C. Tyler

June 28, 1946 - February 27, 2026

CLAUDETTE CECELIA TYLER, daughter of the late John Edward Tyler and Martha Tyler, was born on June 28, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the youngest of five children. Claudette departed this life after a brief illness on February 27, 2026.

Claudette attended Baltimore City Schools and graduated from Carver Vocational High School in 1964. Claudette worked at Western Electric, the Department of Motor Vehicles and the Injured Workers Insurance Fund (IWIF). When her mother's health began to fail, Claudette retired from IWIF and became her mother's caregiver. Claudette was a people person, and she greeted everyone she met with her beautiful smile.

Claudette was a devout servant of Jehovah. She was baptized on June 24, 1967. She was devoted to her ministry. She loved going out and talking about Jehovah and the resurrection hope.

The family of Claudette want to thank Trell Pratt for her devotion to Claudette. She sat by her bedside day and night. She comforted her and made sure she was comfortable at all times.

Claudette is survived by: her brother, Herman Tyler; sister, Jean Atkins; sister-in-law, Loretta Tyler; brother-in-law, Charles Lowry; and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews. Her brother Edward Tyler and sister Carolyn Lowry preceded her in death.
