“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my deepest regrets to Ms. Young's family. No doubt this a most difficult time. The comforting hope from God's inspired word the bible can help us to deal with such tragedy. One comforting scripture that gives comfort is Isaiah 25:8 where it reads. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". This promise is soon to be a reality by means of God's Kingdom.##imported-begin##K. D. Smith##imported-end##

“ To the friends & family of Ms. Young. I wish to extend my sympathy for your loss. I have a special place in my heart for older ones because of the wealth of knowledge and wisdom they possess. No doubt Ms. Young was a jewel to have around. We can learn a lot from them if we just listen to them. My heart truly goes out to you, though strangers. A comforting scripture that I want to share with you is found at Isaiah 26:19 and it reads; "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust..." How encouraging. How comforting. We WILL see our loved ones again and we won't have to die in order for that to happen either. What a wonderful and loving God we have. Almighty God, Jehovah also promises to "Actually swallow up death forever..." according to Isaiah 25:8. No doubt this will be a marvelous time for us all. Please see these bible truths firsthand in your copy of the bible.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family. This was not Almighty God intentions for life to end up this way. However, he has made a way out for us to see our beloved ones again. Jesus said at John 11:25 that he is "...the resurrection and the life. He that exercise faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life..." May this strenghten you all as it did me.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##
