

Claudia Smith

December 18, 1943 - November 20, 2013

CLAUDIA AGNES SMITH, daughter of the late Clyde Croxton Sr. and Willie Ann Croxton, was born on December 18, 1943. After a lengthy illness she was called home to be with the Lord on November 20, 2013. She was surrounded by her family when she gently closed her eyes.

Claudia was a loving, kind and compassionate woman. She treated everyone with the same love and gave all she could.

Claudia was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. During her school years, she developed the hobbies of sewing clothes and cooking.

Claudia loved her family. She devoted her life and energy to making them happy. She was especially fond of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

If she knew you were coming by her home, she would prepare her famous spaghetti and fried chicken. Her beverage of choice was Pepsi. She wouldn't offer water, just Pepsi. Claudia loved all types of music, from gospel to the oldies and goodies. She was a quiet soul, she didn't complain; and she appreciated everything. Claudia loved her pets Gotti, Rachel and Tommy. She treated them like human beings who at times would eat the same table food she fed everyone else.

Claudia will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.

She leaves to celebrate her life and cherish her memory: two daughters, Teresa Watson and Suzette Cousins; five grandchildren, Christen Cousins-Waters, Raymond Cousins, Morgan Cousins, Joshua Watson and Justin Watson; two sisters, Marjorie Richardson and Vernetta Jackson; brother-in-law, Richard Jackson; seven great-grandchildren, Camille Waters, Kirk Waters Jr., Kayla Cousins, Katelyn Waters, Kaden Waters, Joshua Watson Jr., Breona Leazer (whom she treated as one of her own), and one on the way, Karic Roberts Jr.; her life-long friend, Charles Stallings; a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

“ I would like to extend condolences on behalf of the Jolivet Family. Growing up, Ms. Claudia was our next door neighbor. Her girls, Teresa and Suzette played with my brother Aaron and me. I have fond memories of Ms. Claudia as a beautiful lady who was very loving to her family. We just learned of her passing and were saddened to have missed her homegoing service. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family for comfort and healing during this difficult time. Tina Jolivet, Esq. and The Jolivets (Russell, Ernestine, Aaron and Tina)

“ To the family of Claudia Smith:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
