

Claybourne Foster

January 28, 1944 - October 4, 2021

CLAYBOURNE FOSTER, son of the late John Henry Foster and Martha Ann Davis Foster, was born on January 28, 1944 at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. He was called home on October 4, 2021 after a short illness.

His parents returned to South Carolina when he was a young boy and that's where he received his formal education. Claybourne loved to travel to South Carolina to visit his sisters and brothers. He loved church, listening to church music and singing his song. He, also, loved to cook. He married Lillie Weathers and made her his wife.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory his wife, Lillie; stepdaughter, Pam and grandson, Jerome. He also leaves to mourn his sisters, Mary Lee Wylie, Mattie (Andrew), Martha (James) Stevenson; three brothers, Rev. Charles (Cora), James Albert (Mary), George Lynn (Doris), all of South Carolina; one sister-in-law, Bobbie Jean Weathers; four brothers-in-law, Jessie Weathers, Levi (Janice) Weathers, all of Baltimore, Maryland, Willie Weathers of Texas, and Mack Weathers of South Carolina; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Claybourne was so glad when church opened again and going to North East Market.

*To be absent from the body is to be in the presence of the lord. I am truly going to miss my dear brother however his memory will forever hold a special place in my heart. I gives me great comfort in knowing that you touched the lives of many, not only were you a blessing to us you blessed everyone you encountered. The lord work in mysterious ways and though the pain is great we never question his will. You are traveling a road that we all must travel someday. I give God all the honor and praise for gracing me with your presence all those wonderful years. Goodbye for now, until we meet again I will alway cherish fond memories. 🙏🙏🙏🙏 Love you and forever more
Your Sister, Mary (May Lee) Wylie🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️*
