

Clayone Louis Johnson

April 15, 1957 - July 24, 2022

Clayone L. Johnson, the son of the late, Leonard Johnson and Inez Burt Johnson was born on April 15, 1957. Clayone went home peacefully and victoriously to be with the Lord and Savior on Sunday, July 24, 2022. Clayone affectionately known as "Tank" received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After several positions in the workforce, Clayone found his niche when he became employed as a forklift Operator.

Clayone loved sporty cars! He took pride in his appearance and was very particular about his clothes. He took his time grooming himself to make sure he walked out the house, sharp as a tack. He did not have a problem taking photos and when social media became available, he flooded the pages with photos of himself enjoying life with those he loved. He also had a sense of humor, loved music, baseball, and movies (especially old westerns).

Clayone shared a special bond with his brother Leon. Leon loved his brother so much, that he named his first son, "Clayone Leon Johnson", aka, C.J. after his brother Clayone. Clayone shared a special bond with his nephew, "C.J."

On September, 1976, Clayone was blessed with a double bundle of joy, when he became a dad, welcoming Damon and Darice (the twins). Shortly after the birth of the twins, he welcomed four more bundles of joy, when he was blessed with Tevon, Candice, Ciera, and Cameron. Clayone shared a special relationship with each one of his children.

Clayone accepted the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and was a member of New Christian Memorial Church under the leadership of Dr. Walter Bronson Jr. Clayone bragged about Pastor Bronson's sermons and how he was uplifted through those sermons, as he weathered life storms, and his struggles. Prior to Pastor Bronson's death he often prayed with Clayone and encouraged him to trust God during those dark moments.

Later in life, Clayone met and married his wife Sheila. Through this union, Clayone became a great stepdad to Lashawnda, Lashelle and Shawn. Sheila and Clayone enjoyed their time traveling together and made many memories.

Clayone enjoyed family reunions with his family in North Carolina! He did not miss an opportunity to gather at family dinners, especially at his cousin Janet and George's house. Clayone also enjoyed watching the Ravens games on Sunday with his sons, affectionately known as Clay 1, Clay 2, Clay 3. As Clayone faced the end of life, he re-affirmed and reassured his love for his children, and made sure his grandchildren, family and friends knew how much he loved them.

Clayone leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Sheila; mother; Louise Johnson, six children, Damon Johnson, Darice Friend, Trevon Chapman, Candice Owens, Ciera Southall, Cameron Owens; three step children, Lashawnda Cooper, Lashelle Bryant, and Shawn Robinson; one daughter-in-law, Shanell Johnson; two son-in-laws, Lamont Friend and Romonda Southall; Fifteen grandchildren, Damon II, Arjae, Sydney, Mykell, Tevon, Tyrin, Cirae', Rae'den, London, Maleia, Lashay, Raymont, Sade, Carter, and Lil Moe, (proceeded him in death); two great-great grands, Khailee and Dymir. One brother, Leon (Cynthia) Johnson; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and close friends, Phil and Tony; along with a host of extended family and friends.
