“ I send my heartfelt condolences for the loss of Clayton. I know your hearts are heavy, because the loss of a loved one is so difficult to bear. When Jesus was here on the earth, he brought many people back to life, because he knew how heartbroken the families were who had lost their loved ones. When his good friend Lazarus died, the Bible says that Jesus himself shed tears, even though he knew that he was about to resurrect Lazarus; which lets us know the compassion and love that Jesus has for people. He showed us a preview of what he will soon do when he ressurects millions back to life who have died over the centuries. Lazarus's sisters were so sad when their brother died, but imagine their joy when Jesus brought him back to life. He promised them: I am the ressurection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. John 11:25,32-35,39-44. May you also be comforted by the promised resurrection, and may your wonderful memories of Clayton bring fond thoughts to your hearts to comfort you.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
