

Clayton N. Anderson

March 24, 1921 - November 9, 2003

Clayton Maxey Anderson, the first child of eight children, was born to James Norman and Mary Webber Anderson on March 24, 1921, in Buckingham County, Virginia. He departed this life at the Caton Manor Nursing Home in Baltimore, Maryland on Sunday, November 9, 2003. At an early age, Clayton was baptized by his grandfather, the late Reverend Charles A. Webber, and became a member of The First Liberty Baptist Church in Dillwyn, Virginia. He always had a gentle, giving and helpful manner about him that showed his reverence for family and friends. Clayton attended the Buckingham County Training School and was later enlisted into the United States Army where he served in Okinawa, South Pacific as a Private First Class Military Policeman in World War II. After his honorable discharge from the Army, the Buckingham School Board employed him as a school bus driver for the county. He later moved to Baltimore where he was employed and retired from the Bethlehem Steel Company in Sparrows Point, Maryland. Clayton was a quiet, kind and peaceful person. He leaves to cherish his memories, the mother of his children, Pauline; two sons, Clayton M. and Andre Elwood Anderson; two daughters-in-law, Twana (Clayton) and Kim (Andre); five grandchildren, Andre, Damon, Neshera, Natasha and Star; four great grandchildren, Sidney, Nicholas, Lindsey, and Leira; six sisters, Lavinia A. Guss, Bowling Green, VA; Bernice Anderson Brown, Baltimore, MD (a very committed and dedicated sister who was a loyal and faithful caretaker during his illness); Annie Bell Holman, Arvon, VA; Mary E. Anderson, Camp Springs, MD; Hallie Marie

Roane, Silver Spring, MD; Dr. Celestine E. Anderson, Brooklyn, New York; one brother, John Norman Anderson, Charlottesville, VA; three brothers-in-law, J. Shelby Guss, Oscar Holman, and James Russell Roane; one sister-in-law, Lena Nunez Anderson; four nephews, four nieces, one uncle, two aunts and many other relatives and friends. Wait on the LORD, be of good courage, and He shall strengthen Thine heart; wait, I say, on the LORD

“ My condolences to the family. Please take comfort in this promise from God's Word- "And as for you yourself, go toward the end; and you will rest, but you will stand up for your lot at the end of the days." Daniel 12:13 So God's Word says that our loved ones may "stand up", be ressurected in God's new world. We hope this brings you as much solace as it has brought to us in times of grief.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I am deeply saddened by the family's loss. I would like to share a scripture that always comforts me in my time of need. The scripture is John 5:28-29 - "The hour is coming when everyone in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." I hope that you too may draw some warm encouragement from these words.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God "is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves." (see Psalms 34:18) Isn't this a comforting thought? Please find comfort in the Bible's message.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God's original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, "Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart," says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn't it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##
