

Cledith Raymond Hurtt

September 27, 1933 - September 12, 2003

CLEDITH R. HURTT, son of the late Charlie and Pinky Hurtt, was born on September 27, 1933 in Greenbay, Virginia. As raindrops fell gently in the late evening of September 12, 2003, Cledith quietly slipped away to his eternal rest. Raised in East Baltimore, he received his education through the Baltimore City Public School System. After receiving his G.E.D. he joined the United States Army where he served in the Korean War. After the war he went to work for General Motors where he worked for several years before going to work at Bethlehem Steel Corporation. He worked at several construction companies before he went to work for the Baltimore City Department of Public Works and served as a Shop Steward for many years with AFSCME Council 44. He married Dreanna Butler on July 3, 1963 and of this union three children were born: Wayne and Darrel (Cledith Jr. preceded him in death). In later years he was united with his older daughter, Thomasine Parrott. Cledith always loved to laugh and joke. He would tell the most outrageous stories that would always have you laughing in the end. He had a smile that could turn your frown into a smile. He loved to be around family and friends; they were truly the heartbeat of his soul. He leaves to mourn: his former wife and friend, Dreanna Hurtt; one son, Darrel Hurtt; two daughters, Wynne Hurtt and Thomasine Parrott; one granddaughter, Dora Evans; two brothers, Lee Hurtt and Wendell Hurtt; one sister, Beulah Hopkins; three sisters-in-law, Vickie Holmes, Jeanette Vanderbilt and Kim Rawles; his extended family, Charlene Pindell, Christine McCormick and Robert McCormick; and a host of relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. Even though you have many fond memories, God promises something even better. This promise is at John 5:28,29- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May this loving promise add to your strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
