

Clellar Little

July 8, 1922 - March 26, 2003

Clellar Pegues Little, eldest daughter of the late Lonnie and Mary Pegues was born July 8, 1922 in Morven, North Carolina. She departed this life on March 26, 2003 after a brief illness. She completed her public education in Morven, North Carolina and then entered High Point College in North Carolina. After two years of study at High Point College she decided to become the wife of the late Eugene Washington Little in 1940. From this union they had three children, baby Lugene (deceased), Kay Kaiser and Johnny Ray. Clellar attended Mt. Zion Methodist Church in Sheran, South Carolina every Sunday with her mother, father and her siblings who looked up to her in admiration. She participated in many church activities throughout her youth. She loved to draw and sew which became her hobbies. She dressed well at all times, sewing many of her own designs. She had a passion to entertain family and friends with a touch of class. Due to a nervous condition she became disabled and her devoted mother Mary and her sisters became her caretakers. In her later years her sister Camilla became the primary caretaker with the help of her sons. She leaves to mourn: her two loving sons, Kay Little of Colorado Springs, Co. and Johnny Little of Baltimore, Md.; two daughters-in-law, Patricia and Gayle Little; nine grandchildren, Katrina Rucker, Kay Kaiser Little Jr., Angela Colding, Rene Little, Michelle Wilcoxon, Jayson Little, Rodney Little and Anthony Little (baby Kevin Little preceded her in death); six great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; three devoted sisters, Eunice Rice, Camilla Pegues and Beatrice Myles; nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.
