

Clementine Clark

March 18, 1944 - January 29, 2002

Clementine Clark, daughter of Ella Mae Cherry and the late Willie Roosevelt Cherry, was born on March 18, 19944 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 29, 2002 in Union Memorial Hospital after a lengthy illness. Her brother, the late Edward R. Cherry and two adopted brothers, the late John and Noah Walston precede her. She received her education at Dunbar Senior High School in Baltimore. She became employed at Goulds Nursing Home and worked there for 21 years as a nursing aide. After leaving Goulds, she became employed at Abacus Security and then at Broadway Services until she became disabled. She became a member of Bibleway FreeWill Baptist Church in 1994 and attended until her illness. She married the late James Davis and out of this union one daughter was born, Ella. In 1984, she married Gregory Clark. Family and friends affectionately called Clementine "Sister". She made friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was caring, compassionate, and loved helping other people. She was well known for her beautiful spirit and enchanting smile. She was a loving and devoted wife, daughter, mother and grandmother. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Gregory Clark; one daughter, Ella Davis; three grandchildren, Quinn, Regine', Quiera; mother, Ella Mae Cherry; one brother, Willie Lee Cherry of Pennsylvania; two adopted sisters, Linda and Janice Walston; stepdaughter, Kim Davis and stepson, Timothy Davis; goddaughter, LaNae Dangerfield; close and dearest friend who she loved like a sister, Ada Williams; a mother-in-law, three sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, an aunt and uncle in North Carolina, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.
