

Clementine Ellen Bennet

January 15, 1948 - January 3, 2002

Clementine Ellen Bennett departed this life after a long and courageous battle with cancer on Thursday, January 3, 2002. God in his infinite wisdom called Clementine home. Clementine Ellen Bennett was born on January 15, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland to Carrie S. Bennett and the late Charles C. Bennett. She was educated through the Baltimore City Public School System. Clementine devoted her life to helping the poor and needy through public outreach organizations such as Morgan State University and the Legal Aid Bureau. Tinie as she was known by most of her colleagues and clients were always willing to go the extra mile to extend her service to those in need. Tinie cherished the moments she shared with her grandchildren (Stephenie, Alissa, Darryl Jr., Donyae, Eric, Carl, and Simone) on a daily basis. They were the apple of her eyes and a loving extension of her family. Qualities to Clementine's character included: listening to soulful music, dancing, family gatherings and cooking a variety of tasteful meals. Clementine was a devoted Catholic to St. Martin's, St. Ambrose and Care Minister. Clementine leaves to mourn: a loving mother, Carrie Bennett; five children, Stephen, Darryl, Charlene, Trina and Walter; seven siblings, Margaret, Barbara, Raymond, Jean, James, Juanita and Sheila; a god-daughter, LaZette; daughter-in-law, Alicia, and a host of nephews, nieces, great-nephews, great nieces and friends. Mother It's hard to say goodbye to you, The one we love so dear. You've stood by us and believed in us You've been there when we needed you You've always given us room to grow, To be ourselves, And be come the people we are todayWe love you and miss you deeply.
