

Clemm E. Ervin

January 16, 1943 - April 8, 2006

CLEMM EDWARD ERVIN, son of the late Robert Ervin Sr. and Equlear Mobley Ervin, was born on January 16, 1943 in Baltimore, Maryland. Clemm departed this life on April 8, 2006 after a lengthy illness. Clemm received his education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore City. At the age of nineteen, Clemm joined the U.S. Army and after nineteen years of serving his country, he retired a highly decorated Vietnam Veteran. While serving his country in Germany, he married the former Else Nielsen; out of that union two children were born, Tony H. Ervin and Natasha Ervin Sapienza. Being known by his smile, Clemm's laughter will be surely missed by all who knew him, right down to the friends he grew up with, down to the ladies he played Bingo with. Clemm leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Tony H. Ervin; his daughter, Natasha Sapienza; three grandsons, Marcus H. Ervin, Marius H. Ervin and Edward H. Sapienza; three brothers, Robert Ervin Jr., Andrew Ervin, and his twin brother, Timm E. Ervin; two sisters, Sylvia Mae Ervin and Florence Gee; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and devoted friends. Lovingly and Sorrowfully Submitted, The Ervin Family

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My sincee condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Ervin. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regards. At Acts 24:15, Almighty God promise a "resurrection" in a beautiful paradise. Yes, please be comforted by the fact that Almighty God cares for you and will be there in your time of need. Jeremiah 29:11.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##
