

Clemmie Wyatt

December 2, 1922 - July 4, 2007

Clemmie Esther Wyatt was born in Mexia (Me-hair), Texas on December 2, 1922 to Clifton and Sophia Tatum. She was one of five children. She had two brothers, Clifton and Charles and two sisters, Clara and Lois, and a brother-in-law, Fred Owens all who preceded her in death. Clemmie Wyatt left Mexia, Texas and moved to Baltimore in 1946 when she met and married her husband, William Wyatt, Jr. They were married for thirty years. Mrs. Wyatt worked as a seamstress for London Fog for twenty-eight years before realizing her calling as a social worker for the Department of Social Services in Baltimore County. She had since retired from the state but she continued to work in the capacity of helping others. For years, Mrs. Wyatt volunteered her services at Liberty Medical Center and John Wesley United Methodist Church in whatever manner she was needed. She was a member of the Fellowship Club, Birthday Club, Kitchen Diplomats, Gospel Choir, Methodist Choir, Alter Guild, COM Committee, Soup Kitchen, and the United Methodist Women. Not to mention she donated much of her time and sewing talents the acolytes, Elizabeth Allen Nalle Memorial Choir, Voices of Inspiration, Jr. Usher Board, Girls Scouts, Boy Scouts, and any other organization that needed her assistance. Mrs. Wyatt is survived by: her son, William Wyatt, III; grandchildren, Andrea Brown, Denise Hooker, Dawn Hawkins and Sydney Wyatt; great-grandchildren, Xiavian Brown, Andre, Jr., Racquelle and Shekinah Maybin, Naya Wyatt, Timothy Hawkins, Jr., Myracle Brown, Khoriana Wyatt and Caleb Hawkins; niece, Juanita Owens; nephew, James Wyatt; sister-in-law, Virginia Tatum; daughter-in-law, Charlotte Wyatt; grandson-in-law, Germaine Brown and Timothy Hawkins, Sr. There was a niece, Roslyn Smith; son, Cecil Wheeler and grandson, Corey Wyatt, who preceded her in death. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Our hearts go out to you and the entire family. I know that your mother has some place to go; she has led a Godly life on this side and will surely will be rewarded on the other. That trademark Wyatt smile has a way of conquering all that this life has to offer. Take special comfort in knowing that He has a special place for her and a well deserved rest. "So you will see her later on in that place where she has gone." And joy will come in the morning....so celebrate her homegoing with a special blessing in His name. Yours in His faith & strength. “ To the family of Clemmie Wyatt I just read about the recent death of your love one. I am deeply concerned about the sorrow and distress that you must be experiencing. I have some GOOD NEWS to share with you regarding loss. The Bible promises us that we will have the opportunity to see our dear love ones again. At John 5:28, 29 Jesus Christ assures us that “everyone in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out”. The promise of a resurrection is held out to all those falling asleep in death (Acts 24:15). Jehovah God has promised obedient mankind at Revelation 21:1-4 that very soon pain, sickness and yes even death will be no more, because according to 1John 4:8 “God is love”. I sincerely hope these words brought your family comfort.##imported-begin##Louise Hibbler!##imported-end##

“ Hello! Clemmie's I send my condolences to you all in the lost of Ms. Clemmie. She was eighty-five years when she died. A great age as the bible say at Ps.90:10, some would live to 70 and others because of special mightiness 80 years. Just think what life would be like to live forever, the greatest New ever. I look forward to that and I know you too. All things will be mde New. May all the cherished memories of Ms. Clemmie remain close to your hearts. Sincerely ,Lillian.##imported-begin##lilliab crosby##imported-end##

“ Dear family, please accept my sympathy for your loss. As painful as death is, we have a hope to look forward to which is the hope of the resurrection. Daniel 12,2 promises that many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up. May it comfort you to know that your loved one is sleeping in God's memory until that wonderful day when he awakens her from the sleep of death to eternal life in a beautiful paradise earth that he is creating. psalm 37:10,11,29. John 5:28,29 I hope these scriptures help to comfort and strengthen you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to all, the family & friends. Ms. Clemmie was almost 83 years young, great age to be. Through life journey Ms. Clemmie had many accomplishments. It will be a joy to live forever never worrying about tears, pain, sorrow, death as the bible say in Rev.21:3-5, these things will be made "NEW". I am looking forward to that happening. May all the precious memories and the chreish times of Ms. Clemmie be a reflection the happy life she had. My fellow feeling, crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
