

Cleo H. Brown

February 14, 1929 - September 22, 2017

Sister Cleo Brown departed this life after dealing with Vascular Dementia for a period of time. She was born in Columbia, NC to Betty and Cliff Morris on February 14, 1929. Sister Brown was raised with six other siblings which she was the last remaining.

She completed her education in Columbia and had a son, Eugene, that her mom raised. Later, she left Columbia and moved to Baltimore. She met and married Mr. Samuel Cheatham where three children were conceived: Carol, Gwen and Michael. Mr. Cheatham departed this life after a long illness.

Sister Brown met and married Mr. Willie James Brown and three more children were conceived: Annie, Jerry and Maurice.

Sister Brown gave her life to Christ at a very early age. She was a true believer and loved the Lord. She was an active member of New Mt. Hebron Baptist Church. She taught vacation bible class, Sunday School and sang on the choir. Sister Brown also had a creative ability that she expressed in her arts and crafts around the church.

Sister Brown's husband and two of her sons preceded her in death. Sister Brown will be truly missed by her friends and church family. She will be remembered for her 49 years of love and concern that she had for everyone

Sister Brown is survived by: five children, Carol, Gwen, Ann, Jerry and Maurice; grandchildren, Angie, Rodney, Paula, Nichole, Ladana, Fatima, Michele, Eric, Sam, Patrice; and a host of great and great-greats.

“ Hey aunt Cleo, I miss you so much and I love you❤️. You have lived a long life. You have left so many behind who love and care for you. We know that you are in a better place. I know you are looking down on us, protecting and smiling at us. Taniya, Nae, Kani and Bria danced so beautifully at your service. I remember the day you introduced 3 out of the 4, They are like glue everytime they are together. I haven't been around you much, but just know I will always love you. Your niece ~Peaches🥰
