

Cleophas J. Garrett

April 4, 1918 - July 30, 2016

Cleophas Julian Garrett (the last of the Garrett family) was born on April 4, 1918 in Moon Georgia, North Carolina to the late William and Nettie Garrett. He married the late Virginia Crowell and out of this union six children were born (two children preceded him in death William and Gwendolyn).

He departed this life peacefully on Saturday, July 30, 2016, relaxing and watching his favorite western station.

He grew up in Turner Station and was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Cleophas worked at the Maryland Dry Docks until he began serving in the United States Army where he was awarded several medals and ribbons for his service in World War II Army. He loved to play cards. He also enjoyed riding around the city sightseeing. Often, after a long adventurous day of sightseeing he would return home to relax in his favorite chair and read his newspaper or watch his favorite television shows.

He leaves to cherish in his memories: four daughters Eva, Alice, Patricia, and Christine; three son-in-laws Clarence, John and George; one granddaughter Vicky (preceding him in death); twelve grandchildren; twenty great-grandchildren; twenty-one great, great grandchildren; one great, great, great grandchild, and a host of other relatives and friends.
