

Cleotus O. Bailey

June 10, 1924 - January 30, 2009

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Cleotus O. Bailey

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences to you for the loss of your dear loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". Also, Acts 24:15 gives much hope of our dead loved ones being restored to life,it declares: "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from your memories together and the Bibles' wonderful hope of the resurrection.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Mommie Bobbie and Family, We wish to extend our deepest condolences for the loss of your beloved Daddy Bus. We hope that you will take great comfort in knowing that he is now free of any pain and suffering. Our prayer is that God will give you strength. Find peace and comfort in one another, and know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers. We love you! Sincerely, The James Family (Oak Ridge)##imported-begin##Karen James##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ From our family to yours, our deepest heartfelt sympathy to you. Please know that, God is with you during your time of need. Cherish the memories of your beloved and keep them close at heart. "The will of God will never take you where the Grace of God will not protect (keep)you." Lovingly, The Jefferson Family (Oak Ridge Academy)###imported-begin###Sherry M. Jefferson###imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To The Family & Friends of Mr. Cleotus Bailey, Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. We all look forward to a time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev21:4). Isaiah65:17-18 gives us comfort because it tells us that the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart. All of this will happen when the last enemy death is brought to nothing (1Cor15:26). Continue to rely on the "God of all comfort" and he will give you the strength to get through (2Cor1:3-4). Warmest regards, C. Murphy###imported-begin###C. Murphy###imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My condolences to the entire Bailey Family circle. He lived a good life, he fought a good fight, and now he is called Home to rest. May all of the family find comfort in knowing God has prepared a place for your loved one and may God bless each of you with peace and comfort.###imported-begin###Wayne A, Jones###imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I lovingly extend my condolences to the Bailey family and friends at this most difficult time. Will I really see my loved one again, many people ask the world over? It's normal to ask that question, simply because we are human, and we don't have all the answers. But there is a reliable source we can turn to for the answers to why sickness and death happens, and that is found in God's word, the bible. The bible man Job once asked this same question long ago. At Job 14:14 he asked: "If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again? Notice his answer in verse 15, "You will call and I myself shall answer you, for the work of your hands you will have a yearning.' Yes Job knew from his wonderful relationship with Jehovah, that he yearns to see his loyal ones who have died, come to life again. He has staed his wonderful purpose in his word, and that is to ressurect the dead back to life. John 5:28,29. May you too find comfort in this hope, and know that if we put faith in our saviour, Christ Jesus, we will see our loved ones again. I would like to share more comfort with you from the bible, so if you are interested, please contact me at my e-mail address. Take care family, and put all of your confidence in Jehovah, because he will never fail us. Isaiah 55:10,11###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello ! BAiley's ! May I send my condolences on your recent circle of life being broken. Lossing someone after almost 85 years hurt the heart. Our heavenly father will always be there with all the careing, 1 Peter 5:7, and comfort needed to get through. The future holds out better times for mankind. The resurrection bring Joy to our hearts, John5:28.I hope these few thoughts will be postive on the journey of life.###imported-begin###L.D.C###imported-end###

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Mr. Cleotus Baily, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Although, not much was said about Mr. Baily, i'm sure over the years there are many fond memories you share. The pain, grief and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. No doubt, you will agree, times such as these we need to go to God,s Word for comfort. What comes to my mind is the close friendship sharred with Jesus and Lazarus. Jesus knew the pain of losing someone in death. "Jesus gave way to tears", although he was about to resurrect him. John11:35. We can take comfort in knowing that the Creator and Jesus hate death and the Bible's promise at John 5:28 "All those in the memorial tombs will be ressurected. Sincerely###imported-begin###Evonne Williams###imported-end###

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to express my condolences to Mr. Bailey's family. The loss of a loved one may seem to be untimely and can be painful at any age; that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 states, "many asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." These are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.###imported-begin###Valerie Johnson###imported-end###

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM